WITHDRAWAL OF PETITION UNDER 37 CFR 1.47(a) AND SUBMISSION OF DECLARATION UNDER 37 CFR 1.42

Howard M. Ham is a named inventor in the above referenced patent application and he is deceased. Attempts were previously made to obtain the signature of Howard M. Ham's legal representative, his wife Lillian Margaret Ham. On July 13, 2001, Formal papers were sent to Mrs. Ham at her last known address, but were returned by the U.S. Postal Service as undeliverable with no forwarding address.

On 29 August 2001, applicants filed a Petition Under 37 CFR 1.47(a) alleging that the signature of Howard M. Ham's legal representative could not be obtained because the representative could not be located. On December 11, 2001, applicants' petition was denied by the PCT Legal Office because it did not indicate that a bona fide attempt was made to present a copy of the application papers (specification, including claims, drawings, and oath or declaration) to the legal representative Margaret Ham for signature as required.

Following receipt of this decision applicants again attempted to locate Margaret Ham, and she was found. A copy of the application papers were sent to her and she signed the appropriate declaration and added page (see attached) as the legal representative of Howard M. Ham.

Accordingly, applicants no longer need to file the declaration under 37 CFR 1.47 and the 29 August 2001 petition under this section is hereby respectfully withdrawn. Alternatively, applicants hereby submit the attached declaration and added page under 37 CFR 1.42. Margaret Ham is the legal representative Howard M. Ham (deceased) and hereby submits the attached declaration and added page in his name and on his behalf.

Applicants believe that no fee is due with this action. If an additional fee is due, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge Deposit Account No. 11-1580.

Respectfully submitted,
